charter offered, the preference was to be given to them. The plaintiffs contend that the true menting of the clause is that the defendants were only to have the preference in case the charter-party was contracted in Hongkong; that this charter-party was made in New York, and that the clause does not apply. It is for the ourt to decide what the meaning of the cleuse is: it will bear oither interpretation. It is admitted that if the ship had left Hongkong "eceking" that the commission would not be payable, or if she had left upable to obtain a argo and had practically terminated the charter party was made by the captuin in Hamburg, and his evidence shows that he clearly contemplated house was burnt down, and no latelities ocobtaining an outward Charter "in Hougkong," which; as I understand the words, means whilet the vessel elecwhere. 200 tons. There was at one time some thoughts of building gune of 160 tons, that is, double the size of the present "infant" of 80 tons. But on the calculations and quantities being taken out it was seen that a gun of 200 tons could be made in the came time and at very little extra cost than one of 160. It is understood that the only question ramaining open is whether it would not be better to make six guns of 160 tons instead of four of 200. The intended 200 ton gun will have a length of as nearly as possible fifty feet.
